Welcome to Your Creami Kitchen

This book has 50 recipes written for the Ninja CREAMi NC300IN and the Ninja Blast portable blender, using ingredients you can order on Blinkit, Zepto, Instamart, BigBasket or Amazon, or pick up at the kirana. High-protein pints run through the whole book, alongside kulfi-style desi flavours, gelatos and fruit sorbets.

The recipes are split into six sections: Protein Pints: Whey-Powered; Protein Pints: Greek Yogurt, Turbo & Paneer; Desi Ice Creams; Global Classics; Gelato; and Sorbets, Bowls & Shakes. Start with the reference pages that follow. They explain the programs, the sweeteners and the fixes for common texture problems.

Each recipe page shows a program badge (the button to press), a Blast step for blending the base, a 24-hour freeze, the spin and any re-spin. Quantities are metric first, with Indian cups (240 ml) in brackets. Use the notes area to record your freezer's quirks, sweetness changes and the brands you prefer.

STEP TAGS

Every step is labelled so you can see the flow at a glance:

PER PINT

Nutrition is for the whole 473 ml pint, with a per-serving figure underneath. Estimates from typical Indian label values.

RE-SPIN

How many re-spins to expect. Protein and sugar-free pints almost always need one.

WITH EGGS (OPTIONAL)

Every recipe is eggless as written. Where yolks make it richer, a yellow panel shows the custard-style upgrade.

Ninja CREAMi NC300IN

Freezes nothing itself. You freeze a 473 ml pint solid for 24 hours, and the CREAMi's spinning blade shaves it into ice cream in about two minutes. Seven one-touch programs plus RE-SPIN.

Ninja Blast

The Ninja Blast holds 530 ml with a practical max fill of about 470 ml, so one full pint base blends in a single go. It is cordless and charges by USB-C.

The programs

PROGRAM	BEST FOR	TEXTURE	USE WHEN
• ICE CREAM	Full-fat bases with cream, milk and sugar or condensed milk	Thick, scoopable, classic parlour	The base has real sugar and at least some cream
• LITE ICE CREAM	Protein, low-fat and sugar-substitute bases	Soft-serve once re-spun; may start powdery	Using whey, Greek yogurt, paneer, stevia, sucralose, erythritol or allulose
• GELATO	Cooked custard or cornflour-thickened bases	Dense, silky, slightly elastic	The base was cooked and cooled: gelato, kulfi, rabdi, caramel
• SORBET	Fruit-heavy, high-water bases, usually dairy-free	Smooth, bright, firm-melting	Mango, jamun, kokum, lemon or watermelon with sugar or syrup
• SMOOTHIE BOWL	Frozen fruit with yogurt, juice or milk	Thick, spoonable, less sweet	You want a breakfast bowl to top with granola and fruit
• MILKSHAKE	A frozen or processed pint plus about 120 ml milk	Thick, sippable shake	Turning a pint (or leftovers) into a shake in about 2 minutes
• MIX-IN	Folding in biscuits, nuts, chocolate or ripples	Even chunks without over-crushing them	The pint is already processed and a 4 cm well is dug to the bottom
• RE-SPIN	Rescuing powdery, crumbly or too-cold results	Turns crumbs creamy	After any program, with 1–2 tbsp milk added; repeat if needed

The Blast: dos & don'ts

- ✓ Blend cold or room-temperature bases for 30–60 s, or 2–3 blend cycles.
- ✓ Add liquids first, then powders (whey, cocoa, gum), then soft solids.
- ✓ Rest whey and yogurt bases 2–3 min so foam settles before pouring.
- ✓ Sprinkle xanthan or guar gum over moving liquid to avoid lumps.
- ✓ Charge it fully before a batch day; one charge covers several pints.

- ✗ Never blend hot liquids: the sealed vessel builds pressure.
- ✗ Don't fill above about 470 ml.
- ✗ Don't grind hard nuts, ice or whole spices on their own.
- ✗ Don't knead thick doughs or very dense pastes without liquid.
- ✗ Don't submerge the motor base in water; rinse only the jar and lid.

From Blast to bowl

Blend 1

Add the cold or room-temperature base to the Blast and blend 30–60 s. Cook-and-cool recipes must be fully cool before they go in.

Settle 2

Rest the blended base 2–3 min, or tap the vessel on the counter, so the foam from whey or yogurt subsides.

Fill 3

Pour into a CREAMi pint up to, never above, the MAX FILL line (about 400–450 ml). Lid it and label it with the name and date.

Freeze 24 h 4

Freeze the pint on a level shelf for a full 24 hours at –13 °C to –22 °C. A slanted pint freezes with an uneven top.

Spin 5

Remove the lid, flatten any hump, lock the pint into the outer bowl and press the program shown on the recipe.

Re-spin 6

If it looks powdery or crumbly, add 1–2 tbsp milk and press RE-SPIN. Lite and protein bases often need one or two.

Mix-in & store 7

Dig a 4 cm well, add up to ⅓ cup mix-ins and run MIX-IN. Flatten leftovers, refreeze, and re-spin before serving again.

Plan ahead

Tonight blend & freeze. Tomorrow night spin & serve. Keep 2–3 pints frozen and you never wait.

10 golden rules

01 Freeze a full 24 hours

A part-frozen core gives soupy, uneven results. Plan one day ahead.

03 Freeze level

Set pints on a flat shelf away from the door. A slanted top strains the blade.

05 Powdery is normal

Lite and protein pints often come out crumbly first. Add 1–2 tbsp milk and re-spin.

07 Keep whey to 1–1.5 scoops

30–45 g per pint is the sweet spot; more turns chalky and icy.

09 Cool before you Blast

Cooked bases for gelato, kulfi or chai must reach room temperature before blending.

02 Respect MAX FILL

Overfilled pints can jam or damage the machine. Keep bases at about 400–450 ml.

04 Flatten the hump

If the top freezes domed, rest 5–10 min or scrape it flat with a spoon before spinning.

06 Never cook whey

Heat makes whey grainy and clumpy. Blend it into a cold or cooled base.

08 Use a pinch of gum

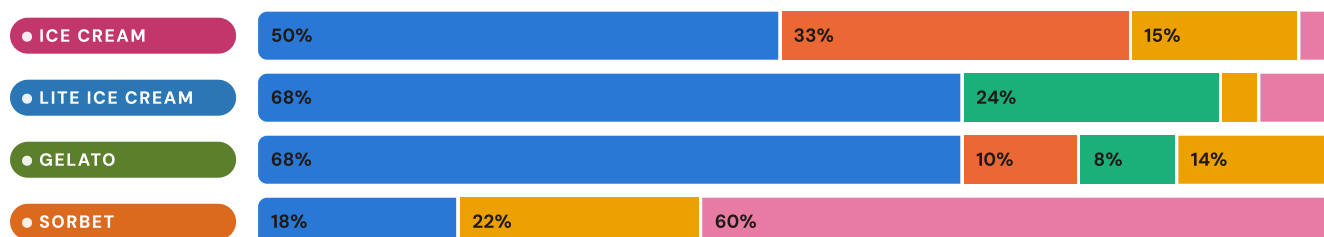

⅛–¼ tsp xanthan or guar gum makes low-fat bases noticeably creamier.

10 Mix-ins go in last

Add them after processing, into a 4 cm well, and use MIX-IN, never the main program.

Base blueprints

■ Milk / water ■ Cream ■ Protein & milk solids ■ Sugar / sweetener ■ Fruit & flavour

Typical share of a ~450 ml base by weight across this book. Use it to sanity-check your own creations: more sugar or fat = softer, more water = icier.

Quick-commerce shopping tips

- Keep a standing basket of milk, cream, Milkmaid, cocoa, whey and xanthan, so a pint takes one reorder.
- Order cream and Greek yogurt last, check the expiry date on delivery, and refrigerate straight away.
- Check marshmallows, sprinkles and jelly sweets for the FSSAI green dot; many imported ones contain gelatin.
- Buy specialty items such as xanthan gum, pistachio paste and vanilla extract from Urban Platter on Amazon.
- Buy mango pulp tins in May–June when stock is fresh, and freeze seasonal fruit pulp in pint-sized batches.
- Compare whey per-scoop protein on the label, not the pack size; flavoured tubs vary widely.

Protein & sweeteners

⚡ The protein toolkit

Protein sources freeze differently. Fat-free and high-protein bases freeze harder, so expect a re-spin and add a pinch of gum. Figures are typical label values; check your pack.

BASE	PROTEIN	TEXTURE	TIP
Whey isolate	~25–27 g / 30 g scoop	Clean taste, can turn icy	Add gum + 1 tbsp cream or SMP
Whey concentrate	~22–24 g / 30–33 g scoop	Creamier than isolate	Best all-rounder; 1–1.5 scoops
Casein / whey-casein blend	~24 g / 33 g scoop	Thickest, most ice-cream-like	Thickens on standing; add 2–3 tbsp extra milk
Greek yogurt (Epigamia, Milky Mist)	~7–10 g / 100 g	Tangy, frozen-yogurt style	Balance tang with honey or fruit
Epigamia Turbo High Protein Yogurt	~12 g / 100 g (50 g per tub)	Very thick, fat-free, firm when frozen	Thin with milk; plan one re-spin
Amul High Protein Paneer	~25 g / 100 g	Cheesecake-like once blended	Crumble and blend with milk until fully smooth
Amul protein lassi / buttermilk	~15 g / 200 ml pack	Light and tangy	Use as the liquid; sweetness is already low
Skimmed milk powder	~3 g / tbsp (8 g)	Adds body, reduces ice	2–3 tbsp per pint is enough
Peanut butter powder	~7–8 g / 2 tbsp (16 g)	Nutty, slightly dry	Pair with banana or cocoa

Sweeteners & what they do to texture

Sugar does more than sweeten: it keeps the pint soft. Swap it out and the pint freezes harder, so expect LITE ICE CREAM and a RE-SPIN.

SWEETENER	VS SUGAR	FREEZING EFFECT	PROGRAM	TIP
Sugar	1×	Keeps pints soft and scoopable	● ICE CREAM	Grind to caster so it dissolves in cold bases
Condensed milk (Milkmaid)	~0.5× by weight	Soft and creamy, adds milk solids	● ICE CREAM	About 100 g sweetens a pint; whisk in first
Honey / jaggery	~1.2× / ~0.8×	Softer than sugar; jaggery adds caramel notes	● ICE CREAM	Add jaggery to warm, not boiling, milk to avoid curdling
Sucralose / aspartame (Sugar Free Natura / Gold)	~600× / ~200×	No softening; freezes hard and powdery	● LITE ICE CREAM	Add to cold bases (aspartame loses sweetness with heat); plan a re-spin
Stevia (Sugar Free Green)	~200–300×	No softening; freezes hard	● LITE ICE CREAM	Use less than you think; vanilla masks the aftertaste
Erythritol / monk fruit blends	~0.7×	Freezes very hard; can recrystallise	● LITE ICE CREAM	Mix with allulose; eat within a week
Allulose	~0.7×	Softer than sugar, like a regular ice cream	● LITE ICE CREAM	Best sugar-free option for scoopable pints
Dates	~0.6× (soaked)	Thick, slightly fibrous	● SMOOTHIE BOWL	Soak in hot water 15 min, cool, then Blast with the milk

Troubleshooting

PROBLEM	WHY IT HAPPENS	FIX
Powdery / crumbly	Low fat or sugar, or a very cold freezer	Add 1–2 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN ; repeat once if needed
Icy, crystalline	Too much water, too little fat, sugar or solids	Add SMP, cream or a pinch of gum next time
Too soft / melty	Too much sugar, honey or allulose, or freezer too warm	Refreeze 1–2 h; reduce sweetener; check freezer is -18°C
Hump on top	Base expanded as it froze; pint not level	Rest 5–10 min or scrape flat before spinning
Mix-ins sink or don't spread	Added without a well, or too many	Dig a 4 cm well to the bottom; max $\frac{1}{3}$ cup; use MIX-IN
Foam overflows MAX FILL	Whey or yogurt whipped air into the base	Rest 2–3 min or tap the Blast before pouring
Chalky protein taste	Too much whey, or isolate with no fat	Stay at 1–1.5 scoops; add 2 tbsp cream or SMP
Machine won't start / bowl won't lock	Lid, bowl or pint not seated and twisted fully	Twist the outer bowl until it clicks; check the paddle is fitted
Rock hard after storage	Pint refroze solid after the first spin	Flatten the top, add 1 tbsp milk, run the program again
Gritty or curdled base	Whey heated, or acidic fruit added to hot milk	Cool bases first; add fruit and whey cold

Storing leftovers

- Flatten the surface of leftovers with a spoon, lid tightly and refreeze; re-spin before serving again.
- Plain dairy pints keep best for 2–3 weeks; protein, sugar-free and sorbet pints for 1–2 weeks.
- Refreeze a pint only once or twice; repeated thawing makes it icy.
- Label every lid with recipe name, date and program; masking tape and a marker work well.
- Keep pints at the back of a level shelf, away from the door, at about -18°C .

Chocolate whey and peanut butter already share a shelf in half the kitchens in India. Peanut butter powder adds roasted flavour and protein without extra fat, and salted peanuts finish it.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 340 ml (scant 1½ cups) Amul Taaza toned milk
- ☐ 30 g (1 scoop) chocolate whey protein
MuscleBlaze, ON or Avvatar
- ☐ 16 g (1 tbsp) natural peanut butter,
unsweetened
Pintola or Alpino
- ☐ 16 g (2 tbsp) Alpino peanut butter
powder
or 1 more tbsp peanut butter
- ☐ 6 g (1 tbsp) unsweetened cocoa
powder
Hershey's or Cadbury
- ☐ 2–4 pack spoons Sugar Free Natura powder
(sucralose)
1 spoon = 1 tsp sugar; or erythritol
- ☐ 1 pinch salt
- ☐ ⅛ tsp xanthan gum (optional, recommended)
or guar gum

MIX-INS

- ☐ 15 g (1½ tbsp) roasted salted peanuts, chopped

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Blend milk, peanut butter, PB powder, cocoa, sweetener, salt and xanthan in the Ninja Blast, adding the whey last, for 45–60 s until smooth.
- 2 FREEZE Rest 2–3 min for the foam to settle, then pour into the pint below MAX FILL. Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 3 SPIN Run LITE ICE CREAM. If powdery, add 1–2 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN.
- 4 MIX-IN Make a 4 cm well to the bottom, add the peanuts and run MIX-IN.
- 5 SERVE Serve at once, with a thin drizzle of peanut butter if you like.

PRO TIPS

- Spoon the peanut butter onto the milk, not the vessel walls, or it sticks to the plastic and never blends in.
- Whey brands vary in sweetness. Taste the blended base and add sweetener only if it needs it.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin with a splash of milk before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- No PB powder: use 2 tbsp peanut butter in total (adds about 70 kcal and 7 g fat).
- Higher protein: swap 250 ml of the milk for one pack of Amul High Protein Milk (about +27 g protein).
- Gluten-free: most plain chocolate wheys are, but check the label.

PB powder: Alpino on Amazon or Blinkit. Xanthan gum: Urban Platter on Amazon.

1 pint · 473 mlRE-SPIN
Usually 1 re-spin with 1–2 tbsp milk

Skimmed milk made rich with two spoons of milk powder, so the vanilla tastes like ice cream, not a shaker bottle. Oreos go in at the end, broken by hand, for real chunks.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 330 ml (1½ cups) skimmed milk, e.g. Amul Slim n Trim toned milk makes it creamier
- ☐ 30 g (1 scoop) vanilla whey protein
MuscleBlaze, ON or Avvatar
- ☐ 15 g (2 tbsp) skimmed milk powder, e.g. Amul Sagar
- ☐ 2 pack spoons Sugar Free Natura powder (sucralose)
1 spoon = 1 tsp sugar; or erythritol
- ☐ ½ tsp vanilla essence
- ☐ ⅛ tsp xanthan gum (optional, recommended)
or guar gum

MIX-INS

- ☐ 3 biscuits (35 g) Oreo, broken into pieces
or any chocolate cream biscuit

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Blend milk, milk powder, sweetener, vanilla and xanthan in the Ninja Blast, whey last, for 45 s until no powder remains.
- 2 FREEZE Rest 2–3 min for the foam to settle, then pour into the pint below MAX FILL. Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 3 SPIN Run LITE ICE CREAM. If crumbly, add 1–2 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN.
- 4 MIX-IN Make a 4 cm well to the bottom, drop in the broken Oreos and run MIX-IN.
- 5 SERVE Serve at once, topped with one extra crushed Oreo.

PRO TIPS

- Break each Oreo into 6–8 pieces by hand. Fine crumbs dissolve during MIX-IN and turn the whole pint grey.
- Milk powder is the cheap trick: it adds body and milky flavour to skimmed milk with almost no fat.
- For a whiter pint, use unflavoured whey and 1 tsp vanilla; many vanilla wheys tint the base beige.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Use Hide & Seek, Bourbon or Dark Fantasy pieces instead of Oreo.
- Chocolate: use chocolate whey and add 1 tbsp cocoa to the base.
- Lighter: use 2 Oreos (saves about 55 kcal).

Real kulfi means boiling milk down for an hour. Here, Amul High Protein Milk and a little milk powder give dense, rabdi-like body in minutes, while saffron and elaichi bring the matka smell.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 250 ml (1 pack) Amul High Protein Milk (35 g protein)
fat-free; see Swaps if unavailable
- ☐ 110 ml (scant ½ cup) Amul Taaza toned milk
2 tbsp of it for the saffron
- ☐ 15 g (½ scoop) unflavoured or vanilla whey protein
AS-IT-IS, MuscleBlaze or ON
- ☐ 20 g (2½ tbsp) skimmed milk powder, e.g. Amul Sagar
- ☐ 15–20 strands saffron (kesar)
Baby Brand or Lion
- ☐ ½ tsp green cardamom powder
or 4 pods, seeds crushed
- ☐ 4 pack spoons Sugar Free Natura powder (sucralose)
1 spoon = 1 tsp sugar; or erythritol
- ☐ ⅓ tsp xanthan gum (optional, recommended)
or guar gum

MIX-INS

- ☐ 15 g (2 tbsp) unsalted pistachios, chopped

METHOD

- 1 PREP Warm 2 tbsp of the toned milk for 10 s, crush in the saffron and steep 10 min. Cool to room temperature.
- 2 BLAST Blend both milks, saffron milk, milk powder, cardamom, sweetener and xanthan in the Ninja Blast, whey last, for 45 s.

PRO TIPS

- Unflavoured whey keeps the saffron in front. Vanilla whey works too; use less sweetener.
- For a firmer, more kulfi-like bite, return the spun pint to the freezer for 15–20 min before scooping.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving again.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Malai kulfi: skip the saffron; add 1 tsp edible rose water and a pinch of nutmeg.
- No Amul High Protein Milk: use 360 ml toned milk and 30 g whey in total (about 45 g protein).
- Badam-pista: add 1 tbsp chopped almonds with the pistachios.

PRO TIPS

- Tinned pulp is sweeter than fresh. With fresh Alphonso, add 1 tbsp more sugar or the pint tastes flat frozen.
- Hung curd is tangier and denser; thin it with 1 extra tbsp milk so the Blast can turn it over.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin on LITE ICE CREAM before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Kesar-elaichi shrikhand: skip the mango; use 300 g yogurt, 30 g sugar and double the saffron.
- Whey-free: use 250 g Epigamia Turbo Natural instead of the Greek yogurt and whey (still about 33 g protein).
- Mango lassi pint: replace the milk and 50 g of the yogurt with 100 ml Amul High Protein Lassi (Plain).

Epigamia's Turbo Chocolate shake packs 25 g protein into 250 ml with no added sugar. Add Turbo's thick protein yogurt and cocoa, and it becomes a dense pint with over 40 g protein, for lazy nights.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 250 ml (1 bottle) Epigamia Turbo Chocolate protein shake (25 g protein) or any 250 ml, 20 g+ protein shake
- ☐ 150 g (⅔ cup) Epigamia Turbo Natural yogurt (50 g protein tub)
or Milky Mist Skyr Natural
- ☐ 5 g (1 tbsp) unsweetened cocoa powder
Hershey's or Cadbury
- ☐ ½ tsp xanthan gum (optional, recommended)
or guar gum

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Shake the bottle well. Blend the shake, yogurt, cocoa and xanthan in the Ninja Blast for 30 s.
- 2 FREEZE Rest 2–3 min for the foam to settle, then pour into the pint (about 400 ml, under MAX FILL). Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 3 SPIN Let the pint sit 5 min on the counter, then run LITE ICE CREAM.
- 4 RE-SPIN This lean base usually spins powdery. Add 1 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN; repeat once if needed until glossy.
- 5 SERVE Eat from the pint, or top with dark chocolate shavings.

- Almost zero fat means the texture depends on the re-spin. For a creamier pint, blend in 1 tbsp peanut butter (adds about 95 kcal).
- No Blast handy? Whisk everything in a bowl for a minute. The cocoa may speckle, but it spins out fine.
- Leftovers turn rock hard. Flatten, refreeze and re-spin with a splash of milk.

Frozen mixed berries from the quick-commerce freezer aisle bring real berry flavour any month of the year. Blended with thick skyr and a little honey, they spin into a tart, magenta froyo.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 160 g (1 heaped cup) frozen mixed berries, thawed 15 min
Pluckk, Delishh or RealFrost
- ☐ 200 g (2 × 100 g cups) Milky Mist Skyr Natural or Greek yogurt + ½ scoop more whey
- ☐ 40 ml (2½ tbsp) Amul Taaza toned milk
- ☐ 30 g (1½ tbsp) honey or 2 tbsp sugar
- ☐ 15 g (½ scoop) vanilla whey protein
MuscleBlaze, ON or Avvatar
- ☐ ⅛ tsp xanthan gum (optional, recommended) or guar gum

METHOD

- 1 PREP Let the berries sit 15 min to soften and release their juice.
- 2 BLAST Blend the berries and juice, skyr, milk, honey, whey and xanthan in the Ninja Blast for 45–60 s until no chunks remain.
- 3 FREEZE Rest 2–3 min for the foam to settle, then pour into the pint below MAX FILL. Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 4 SPIN Run SMOOTHIE BOWL; fruit sugars and skyr give a soft-serve texture. If the edges are crumbly, add 1–2 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN.

Rasmalai is paneer soaking in saffron milk, so blending high-protein paneer into kesar milk is a short step. Blitzed smooth with condensed milk and cardamom, it tastes like the last bowl at a Bengali wedding.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 200 g Amul High Protein Paneer, room temperature regular paneer: about 50 g protein total
- ☐ 180 ml (¾ cup) Amul Taaza toned milk
- ☐ 60 g (3 tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid condensed milk or Amul Mithaimate
- ☐ 20 strands + 1 tbsp milk saffron, soaked in warm milk, cooled

The matka kulfi of every summer evening, reduced the patient way in a kadhai and finished with Milkmaid. The CREAMi turns the dense, caramel-edged milk into a spoonable scoop that still tastes of the kulfi-wala's cart.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 480 ml (2 cups) Amul Gold full cream milk or any 6% milk; reduced to 240 ml
- ☐ 100 g (5 tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid condensed milk or Amul Mithaimate
- ☐ 100 ml (scant ½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream (25% fat), chilled
- ☐ ¼ tsp green cardamom powder about 4 pods, freshly crushed
- ☐ 10–12 strands saffron (kesar) Baby Brand or Lion
- ☐ 30 g (¼ cup) khoya / mawa, crumbled (optional) adds rabri depth; not counted

MIX-INS

- ☐ 10 g (1 tbsp) pistachios, finely chopped
- ☐ 10 g (1 tbsp) almonds, finely chopped

METHOD

- 1 COOK Simmer the milk in a wide, heavy kadhai on medium-low for about 25 min, stirring and scraping the sides in, until reduced to 240 ml.
- 2 COOK Stir in the Milkmaid, cardamom, saffron and khoya, if using. Simmer 2–3 min, then take off the heat.
- 3 COOL Cool to room temperature, about 45 min, or 15 min over an ice-water bath. Never put a warm base in the Blast.
- 4 BLAST Blend the cooled base and cream in the Ninja Blast for 20–30 s; any longer and the cream starts to whip.
- 5 FREEZE Pour into the pint below MAX FILL. Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 6 SPIN Run ICE CREAM. If crumbly, add 1 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN.
- 7 MIX-IN Make a 4 cm well to the bottom, add the pistachios and almonds, and run MIX-IN.
- 8 SERVE Scoop at once, or rest 5 min for a denser, more kulfi-like bite.

PRO TIPS

- Use your widest heavy pan; more surface means faster reduction and fewer scorched spots.
- Measure the cooled reduction. Over 250 ml and the base will pass MAX FILL once the cream goes in; drink the extra.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving again. The nuts soften a little.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Protein: reduce toned milk, use 50 g Milkmaid, swap cream for 120 g Greek yogurt + 30 g whey; rest for foam, run LITE ICE CREAM.
- Kesar pista: double the saffron, bloomed in 1 tbsp warm milk, and use 20 g pistachios as the only mix-in.
- Rabri kulfi: add the 30 g khoya and 1 tbsp milk powder to the reduction for a grainier texture.

Aamras-puri lunches in May are the reason this pint exists. A tin of Alphonso or Kesar pulp makes it possible in December too, and cream rounds the fruit's tang into mango-kulfi territory.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 200 g (¾ cup) Alphonso or Kesar mango pulp, sweetened
Swad tin; fresh pulp needs 1 tbsp sugar
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream (25% fat)
- ☐ 60 g (3 tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid condensed milk
- ☐ 80 ml (⅓ cup) Amul Gold full cream milk
- ☐ 1 pinch green cardamom powder
optional; very Maharashtrian
- ☐ 1 pinch salt
sharpens the mango

METHOD

- 1 PREP Chill the mango pulp and cream for a few hours so the base starts cold.
- 2 BLAST Blend the pulp, Milkmaid, milk, cardamom and salt in the Ninja Blast for 20 s. Add the cream; blend 15 s more.
- 3 FREEZE Pour into the pint below MAX FILL. Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 4 SPIN If the top has a hump, let the pint sit 5 min. Run ICE CREAM.

PRO TIPS

- Taste the pulp first. Tinned Kesar is usually sweeter than Alphonso; unsweetened Harvesta pulp needs 2 extra tbsp sugar.
- Fresh mangoes must be fully ripe and fibre-free. Stringy Totapuri makes a grainy, sour pint.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving again.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Protein: replace cream and milk with 180 g Greek yogurt + 30 g whey; rest for foam, run LITE ICE CREAM (adds about 33 g protein).
- Kesar-elaichi: bloom 10 saffron strands in 1 tbsp warm milk, cool, and add with the cardamom.
- Mango lassi: cut the cream to 100 ml and replace the milk with 100 g thick curd for a gentle tang.

A tumbler of Chennai degree kaapi, frozen. A thick chicory-blend decoction gives the bitter, toasty edge instant coffee never quite manages, and Milkmaid brings back the sweetness of a darshini counter.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 20 g (3 tbsp) filter coffee powder with chicory
Cothas, Narasu's, Leo or Bru Green Label
- ☐ 100 ml (scant ½ cup) boiling water

Everything a paanwala folds into a meetha paan goes into this pint: cool betel leaf, gulkand, fennel and jewel-bright tutti-frutti. Fresh leaves give pale green flecks and a peppery perfume no paan essence can copy.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 4 medium fresh paan (betel) leaves, Calcutta or Maghai stems and thick vein removed
- ☐ 220 ml (scant 1 cup) Amul Gold full cream milk
- ☐ 40 g (2 tbsp) gulkand (rose petal preserve) Dabur or Patanjali
- ☐ 1 tsp (2 g) saunf (fennel seeds), plain

Hot gulab jamun with vanilla ice cream is a wedding buffet staple; this pint folds the two into one scoop. A rose-cardamom base, sweetened partly with jamun syrup, carries chewy pieces of tinned jamun.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 200 ml (generous ¾ cup) Amul Gold full cream milk
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream (25% fat)
- ☐ 70 g (3½ tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid condensed milk
- ☐ 2 tbsp (30 ml) gulab jamun syrup, from the tin

Strong, spiced chai with a Parle-G dunked in it is India's real comfort food. Brewing the tea in full cream milk keeps it bold enough to survive freezing, and the biscuit softens just as it does in the cup.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 320 ml (1½ cups) Amul Gold full cream milk reduces to about 250 ml chai
- ☐ 10 g (2 tbsp) strong CTC tea leaves
Tata Tea Gold, Red Label or Wagh Bakri
- ☐ whole spices 4 green cardamom pods, 2 cloves, 2 cm cinnamon, 4 peppercorns, crushed or 1 tsp Everest Tea Masala
- ☐ ½ tsp saunth (dry ginger powder) not fresh ginger (see Tips)
- ☐ 70 g (3½ tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid condensed milk
- ☐ 1 tbsp (12 g) sugar or to taste
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream (25% fat)

MIX-INS

- ☐ 25 g (6 biscuits) Parle-G, broken into small pieces

METHOD

- 1 COOK Boil the milk with the crushed spices and saunth. Add the tea and simmer on low for 6–8 min, until deep tan.
- 2 COOK Strain, pressing the leaves; you want about 250 ml. Stir in the Milkmaid and sugar while hot.

- 3 BLAST Blend milk, vanilla sugar and salt in the Ninja Blast 40 seconds until the sugar dissolves. Add the cream; blend only 5–10 seconds so it doesn't whip.

Cocoa gives chocolate flavour; real melted dark chocolate gives the dense, fudgy body of a good gelato counter. Belgian Callebaut callets are easy to order online, but a bar of Amul Dark works beautifully too.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 220 ml (scant 1 cup) Amul Gold full cream milk
- ☐ 20 g (3½ tbsp) unsweetened cocoa powder
Hershey's or Cadbury
- ☐ 55 g (4½ tbsp) sugar
- ☐ 1 pinch salt
- ☐ ½ tsp instant coffee (optional)
deepens chocolate; won't taste of coffee
- ☐ 50 g dark chocolate, finely chopped
Callebaut 811, Amul Dark 55% or Morde
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream, chilled

🥚 WITH EGGS (optional)

Custard chocolate with 2 yolks

Simmer the cocoa milk without sugar. Whisk 2 yolks with the sugar, slowly whisk in the hot cocoa milk, then stir on low heat to 80–82 °C until it coats a spoon. Melt in chocolate; use 90 ml cream.

+2 yolks · net ≈ +40 kcal, +5 g protein

METHOD

- 1 COOK Whisk 120 ml of the milk with cocoa, sugar, salt and coffee in a saucepan. Simmer gently 1 minute, whisking, until smooth.
- 2 COOK Off the heat, stir in the chopped chocolate until melted and glossy.
- 3 COOL Whisk in the remaining 100 ml cold milk and the cream. Cool to room temperature, about 30 minutes; never blend a warm base.
- 4 BLAST Blend in the Ninja Blast 20–30 seconds until silky. Rest 1 minute for bubbles to settle, then pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 5 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 6 SPIN If the top is domed, let it sit 5–10 minutes, then run ICE CREAM. If powdery, add 1 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN.
- 7 SERVE Finish with a pinch of flaky salt or crushed Oreo.

💡 PRO TIPS

- Always bloom cocoa in hot milk. Blended cold, it tastes dusty and leaves a gritty film.
- Check the label lists cocoa butter, not vegetable fat. Compound 'chocolate-flavoured' slabs give a waxy finish.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and RE-SPIN; chocolate pints almost always need it the second time.

Every Indian parlour has a butterscotch tub, usually bright yellow and loud with essence. This one gets its flavour honestly, from caramel cooked with Amul butter and cream, then studded with crunchy cashew praline.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 60 g (5 tbsp) sugar, for the caramel
- ☐ 15 g (1 tbsp) Amul salted butter
if unsalted, add a pinch of salt
- ☐ 150 ml (⅔ cup) Amul Fresh Cream, warmed
30 seconds in the microwave
- ☐ 40 g (2 tbsp) Nestlé Milkmaid
- ☐ ½ tsp vanilla extract
- ☐ 200 ml (generous ¾ cup) Amul Gold full cream milk,
chilled
- ☐ 2–3 drops butterscotch essence (optional)
Bush; for the parlour aroma
- ☐ 40 g (3 tbsp) sugar, for the praline
- ☐ 30 g (¼ cup) cashews, chopped, for the praline or almonds

MIX-INS

- ☐ ⅓ cup (about 50 g) crushed cashew praline

🥚 WITH EGGS (optional)

Caramel custard with 2 yolks Whisk 2 yolks in a bowl; slowly whisk in the hot caramel-cream, then return to low heat and stir to 80–82 °C until it coats a spoon. Whisk in the cold milk, cut to 170 ml. Cool; Blast.

METHOD

- 1 COOK Melt 60 g sugar in a heavy pan on medium-low, swirling, until deep amber, 5–6 minutes.
- 2 COOK Off heat, stir in the butter, then slowly add the warm cream; it bubbles hard. Stir on low until smooth; add Milkmaid and vanilla.
- 3 COOK Praline: caramelize 40 g sugar to amber, stir in the cashews, spread thin on butter paper. When glass-hard, crush to pea-sized bits.
- 4 COOL Whisk in the cold milk and cool to room temperature, 30–40 minutes. Never put a warm base in the Blast.
- 5 BLAST Add the essence and blend in the Ninja Blast 20–30 seconds. Pour into the pint under MAX FILL.

Raw cookie dough is the best part of baking, and with no eggs and heat-treated atta it is safe to eat. The toffee-ish brown sugar base tastes like the middle of a warm chocolate chip cookie.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 220 ml (scant 1 cup) Amul Gold full cream milk, chilled
- ☐ 60 g (5 tbsp, packed) brown sugar
- ☐ 1 tsp vanilla extract
- ☐ 1 pinch salt
- ☐ 160 ml (⅔ cup) Amul Fresh Cream, chilled
- ☐ 30 g (¼ cup) whole wheat atta, for the dough or maida; must be heat-treated
- ☐ 15 g (1 tbsp) Amul butter, softened, for the dough
- ☐ 15 g (1 tbsp, packed) brown sugar, for the dough
- ☐ 2 tsp (10 ml) milk, for the dough
- ☐ 15 g (1 heaped tbsp) mini chocolate chips, for the dough Morde or Hershey's

MIX-INS

- ☐ ⅓ cup (~85 g) frozen pea-sized cookie dough balls

METHOD

- 1 COOK Heat-treat the atta: dry-roast on low, stirring constantly, 4–5 minutes until toasty and hot throughout (or microwave in 30-second bursts to 75 °C). Sift; cool.
- 2 PREP Mix the atta with butter, 15 g brown sugar, milk, a drop of vanilla and a pinch of salt. Fold in chips, roll pea-sized balls; freeze.

- 2 COOK Heat milk, sugar and salt until steaming and the sugar dissolves; don't boil. Off the heat, push the mint under, cover and steep 25–30 minutes.
- 3 COOL Strain, pressing hard on the leaves. Cool the minty milk to room temperature.
- 4 BLAST Blend the minty milk and cream in the Ninja Blast 10 seconds. It should taste slightly over-minty and over-sweet; freezing mutes both.

- ☐ 25 g (4 tbsp) unsweetened cocoa powder
Hershey's or Cadbury
- ☐ 65 g (5 tbsp) sugar
- ☐ 1 pinch + ½ tsp salt + vanilla extract
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Fresh Cream, chilled

Italian gelaterias judge each other on fior di latte, 'flower of milk': no vanilla, no egg, nowhere to hide. Made with good full cream milk, it tastes like the cleanest, coldest malai.

METHOD

- 1 PREP In a heavy pan, whisk sugar, cornflour, milk powder and salt with 60 ml of the cold milk until completely smooth.
- 2 COOK Add the remaining milk and cream. Cook on medium-low, whisking constantly, 5–6 minutes until it coats a spoon. Keep it just below a boil.
- 3 COOL Press cling film onto the surface and cool fully to room temperature.
- 4 BLAST Blend the cooled base in the Blast 30 seconds until glossy. Pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 5 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 6 SPIN Run GELATO.
- 7 SERVE Serve plain, with honey, olive oil and sea salt, or with warm gulab jamun.

👩 PRO TIPS

- With so few ingredients, milk quality is everything. Fresh pouch full cream milk beats UHT tetra packs, which can taste cooked.
- If the base catches on the pan, don't scrape the scorched layer in. A burnt note is impossible to hide here.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and RE-SPIN on GELATO before serving.

⇄ SWAPS & TWISTS

- Protein: replace the milk powder with 1 scoop unflavoured whey, blasted into the cooled base, and cut milk to 290 ml. Rest foam; expect one RE-SPIN.
- Vanilla gelato: add ½ tsp vanilla extract or half a pod's seeds at the BLAST stage.
- Gulkand ripple: after spinning, spoon 2 tbsp gulkand into a 4 cm well and run MIX-IN for rose-petal streaks through the milk.

WITH EGGS (optional)

Everything good about tiramisu in a scoop: a tangy coffee base standing in for mascarpone, chunks of coffee-soaked biscuit and a dark dusting of cocoa. Non-alcoholic, and far easier than layering a dish.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 250 ml (1 cup) Amul Gold full cream milk
- ☐ 60 ml (¼ cup) Amul Fresh Cream (25% fat)
- ☐ 60 g (5 tbsp) sugar
- ☐ 12 g (1½ tbsp) cornflour
- ☐ 2 tsp (4 g) Nescafé Classic instant coffee or Bru
- ☐ 60 g (¼ cup) plain cream cheese, softened D'lecta or Flanders; or thick hung curd

MIX-INS

- ☐ 4 biscuits (~25 g) Britannia Marie Gold, in 2 cm pieces or savoiardi (ladyfingers)
- ☐ 2 tbsp (30 ml) strong coffee, cooled, for soaking ½ tsp instant coffee in 2 tbsp water
- ☐ 1 tsp (3 g) cocoa powder

🥚 WITH EGGS (optional)

👩 PRO TIPS

- Freezing the soaked biscuits keeps them as distinct, cakey chunks. Added unfrozen, they turn to mush during MIX-IN.
- Add cream cheese at the BLAST stage, never to the hot pan, or it can turn grainy and lose its tang.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and RE-SPIN on GELATO; the biscuit stays soft and cake-like.

- Protein: cut milk to 200 ml, replace the cream cheese with 80 g Greek yogurt, blast in 1 scoop coffee whey. Rest foam; expect one RE-SPIN.
- Hung curd: strain 120 g dahi overnight and use the ~60 g thick curd in place of cream cheese; tangier, lighter.

Every winter, Kolkata's sweet shops switch to nolen gur, the smoky, caramel-scented jaggery made from date palm sap. In a milky gelato it tastes like frozen nolen gurur sandesh. Make several pints while the season lasts.

- 3 COOL Cool 10–15 minutes until warm, not hot. Stir in the nolen gur until dissolved, press on cling film and cool fully.

👩 PRO TIPS

- Never add gur to very hot milk; its natural acidity can split it. Waiting until the base is just warm keeps it smooth.
- Nolen gur is in season November to February. Otherwise buy jars or tubes online; real ones smell smoky-sweet, not like molasses.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and RE-SPIN on GELATO before serving.

Every Indian summer has a gola stall with a bottle of inky kala khatta, a squeeze of nimbu and a shake of kala namak. This sorbet keeps that sweet-sour-salty hit, minus the ice shards.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 160 ml ($\frac{2}{3}$ cup) Kala khatta syrup
Mala's; a syrup, not squash
- ☐ 230 ml (scant 1 cup) Chilled drinking water
- ☐ 30 ml (2 tbsp) Fresh lime juice
about 2 nimbu
- ☐ $\frac{1}{2}$ tsp Kala namak (black salt)
- ☐ $\frac{1}{4}$ tsp Chaat masala plus extra to sprinkle
- ☐ 1 pinch Freshly ground black pepper
optional

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Blend syrup, water, lime juice, kala namak, chaat masala and pepper in the Ninja Blast 30 seconds until the salt dissolves.
- 2 PREP Taste: it should be a little sweeter and saltier than a drink, since freezing dulls flavour. Pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 3 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 4 SPIN Flatten any hump with a spoon and run SORBET. If powdery, add 1 tbsp water and RE-SPIN.
- 5 SERVE Scoop into chilled bowls, add a few drops of lime and dust with chaat masala, gola-style.

PRO TIPS

- Kala khatta syrups are about 50–60% sugar, which keeps this scoopable. Squashes are thinner and freeze icier, so check the label says syrup.
- For the full gola moment, serve in paper cups with wooden spoons and extra lime at the table.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin on SORBET before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Fresh jamun (June–July): pulp 250 g ripe jamun off the seeds; blend with 80 g sugar, 120 ml water, the lime and spices; strain.
- Lower sugar: 120 ml syrup, 270 ml water. Sugar drops from about 24% to 18%, so it freezes harder and icier; expect one or two re-spins.
- Soda float: drop a scoop into chilled masala soda or plain soda.

Nani swore by aam panna against the May loo, and she was right. Cooked raw mango, roasted jeera, kala namak and mint make a pale green sorbet that is sharp, salty and cooling at once.

METHOD

- 1 COOK Pressure cook the whole mangoes with 1 cup water for 3 whistles, or boil 15 minutes, until the skins split and the flesh is soft.
- 2 PREP When cool enough to handle, peel and scrape all the pulp off the skins and seeds. You should have about 180 g.
- 3 COOK Stir the sugar into the warm pulp until dissolved, warming it a minute on low if grains remain.
- 4 COOL Cool to room temperature, at least 30 minutes. Never put a warm base in the sealed Blast.
- 5 BLAST Blend the pulp, water, jeera, kala namak, mint and salt in the Ninja Blast 45 seconds. Pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 6 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 7 SPIN Flatten any hump and run SORBET. Only if powdery, add 1 tbsp water and RE-SPIN.
- 8 SERVE Serve with a pinch of roasted jeera and a torn mint leaf.

PRO TIPS

- Raw mangoes vary in sourness. The blended base should taste slightly too sweet and salty as a drink; freezing mutes both.
- Don't overblend the mint or the base turns murky brown-green; a few visible flecks look best.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Shortcut: blend 200 ml ready aam panna concentrate (Mapro) with 200 ml water and the spices; skip the cooking.
- Lower sugar: use 70 g sugar. Sugar drops from about 23% to 18%; it sets harder and icier and needs one or two re-spins.
- Smoky panna: char the mangoes directly over the gas flame instead of boiling, for a deeper flavour.

🛒 Raw mango: Blinkit/Zepto or any sabziwala, March–June. Roasted jeera powder: MDH or Everest, or roast and pound your own.

Muzaffarpur's shahi litchis have a season of barely a month, and this is the best way to make it last. The pale, perfumed sorbet tastes like biting into the fruit.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 60 g (5 tbsp) Sugar

METHOD

- 1 PREP Peel and seed the litchis, scraping off the bitter brown skin that clings to the seed.
- 2 BLAST Blend the litchi flesh, sugar, water, lime juice and rose water in the Ninja Blast 60 seconds until smooth.
- 3 PREP Rest 2 minutes for the foam to settle. Strain for a silkier sorbet, then pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 4 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 5 SPIN Flatten any hump and run SORBET. Only if powdery, add 1 tbsp water and RE-SPIN.
- 6 SERVE Serve small scoops with a few chopped fresh litchis or a single mint leaf.

♀ PRO TIPS

- Peeled litchi browns and loses its scent within hours. Blend and freeze the same day, and don't skip the lime.
- Litchis are about 15% sugar, so the 60 g added here lands the base near 24%, which scoops beautifully.

Highway dhaba shikanji, with its chaat masala, kala namak and roasted jeera, is a lemon sorbet waiting to happen. Tart, salty and sweet with fresh mint, it makes a sharp finish to a heavy Sunday lunch.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 100 g (½ cup) Sugar
- ☐ 260 ml (generous 1 cup) Drinking water
100 ml for syrup, 160 ml chilled
- ☐ 90 ml (6 tbsp) Fresh nimbu (lemon) juice
5–6 lemons
- ☐ 1 tsp Chaat masala
if gluten-free, check hing isn't wheat-based
- ☐ ½ tsp Kala namak (black salt)
- ☐ ½ tsp Roasted jeera (cumin) powder
- ☐ 12 leaves Fresh mint (pudina)
- ☐ 1 pinch Freshly ground black pepper

METHOD

- 1 COOK Warm the sugar with 100 ml water, stirring, just until it dissolves and turns clear. Don't boil it down.
- 2 COOL Off heat, add the remaining 160 ml chilled water and cool fully to room temperature.
- 3 BLAST Blend the cooled syrup with lemon juice, chaat masala, kala namak, jeera, mint and pepper in the Ninja Blast 30 seconds.
- 4 PREP Taste and adjust salt or lemon, then pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 5 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 6 SPIN Flatten any hump and run SORBET. Only if powdery, add 1 tbsp water and RE-SPIN.
- 7 SERVE Scoop into small glasses with a pinch of chaat masala and a mint sprig.

PRO TIPS

- Lemon sorbet needs more added sugar than fruit sorbets because the juice has almost none. About 22% keeps it scoopable; much less gives lemon ice.
- Roll the lemons hard before cutting for more juice, and strain out every seed; one crushed seed tastes bitter.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Lower sugar: use 70 g. Sugar drops from about 22% to 17%, so expect a harder, icier sorbet, closer to a gola; re-spin once or twice.
- Gur shikanji: replace half the sugar with grated jaggery for a darker, caramel-tinged scoop.
- Shikanji float: drop a scoop into chilled soda with a pinch of kala namak.

🛒 Everything is at any kirana or on Blinkit/Zepto. Chaat masala and roasted jeera: MDH, Everest or Catch.

When Nagpur santras flood the thelas in winter, squeeze a bagful and freeze the sunshine. A quick zest syrup brings the aroma of a freshly peeled orange; the juice keeps it bright and tangy.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 340 ml (1½ cups) Fresh Nagpur orange juice
6–7 oranges; kinnow also works
- ☐ 70 g (⅓ cup) Sugar
- ☐ 40 ml (2½ tbsp) Water
- ☐ 1 tsp (1 orange) Finely grated orange zest
orange part only, no pith
- ☐ 15 ml (1 tbsp) Fresh lime juice
- ☐ 1 pinch Salt

METHOD

- 1 PREP Zest one orange before cutting, then squeeze all the oranges and strain out the seeds. Measure 340 ml juice.
- 2 COOK Warm the sugar, water and zest, stirring, until the sugar dissolves. Off heat, steep 10 minutes.
- 3 COOL Cool the zest syrup completely to room temperature before it goes into the Blast.
- 4 BLAST Blend the syrup, orange juice, lime juice and salt in the Ninja Blast 30 seconds. Rest 1–2 minutes; pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 5 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 6 SPIN Flatten any hump and run SORBET. If powdery, add 1 tbsp juice and RE-SPIN.
- 7 SERVE Serve in scooped-out orange halves or small bowls, topped with a curl of zest.

PRO TIPS

- Freeze the base within 30 minutes of squeezing; some Indian oranges turn bitter as the juice sits. Don't press the pith hard.
- If your juice tastes sour on its own, add 1 extra tbsp sugar to the syrup so the sorbet stays scoopable.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Off-season: use 340 ml chilled 100% orange juice (Tropicana or Real Activ, no added sugar), still with the fresh-zest syrup.
- Lower sugar: use 40 g sugar. Sugar drops from about 21% to 16%, giving a firmer, icier sorbet that needs one or two re-spins.
- Orange-ginger: steep 1 tsp grated fresh ginger in the syrup with the zest, then strain.

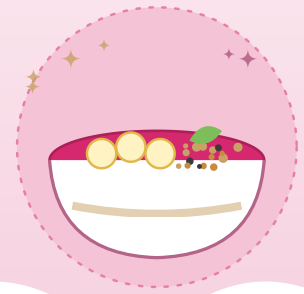

Nagpur oranges: Blinkit/Zepto/BigBasket and local thelas, November–March. Otherwise use kinnow or any sweet orange.

SMOOTHIE BOWL

1 pint · 473 mlRE-SPIN
Usually 1 re-spin with 1–2 tbsp milk

Pink-fleshed dragon fruit, now grown across Gujarat and Maharashtra as kamalam, makes a shockingly pink bowl. Banana adds body, Greek yogurt and whey bring the protein, and the CREAMi makes it thick enough for toppings.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 180 g (1 small fruit) Pink/red-fleshed dragon fruit
white-fleshed turns the bowl greyish
- ☐ 80 g (1 small) Ripe banana, peeled
- ☐ 100 g (scant ½ cup) Epigamia plain Greek yogurt or thick hung curd
- ☐ 30 g (1 scoop) Vanilla whey protein
MuscleBlaze, Avvatar or ON; ~24 g protein
- ☐ 45 ml (3 tbsp) Amul Taaza toned milk
- ☐ 1 tbsp (21 g) Honey optional if your whey is sweet
- ☐ ⅛ tsp Xanthan gum
optional; smoother, less icy

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Add milk, yogurt, dragon fruit, banana, honey, whey and xanthan to the Ninja Blast, liquids first. Blend 45–60 seconds until evenly pink.
- 2 PREP Rest 2–3 minutes, or tap the vessel, so the whey foam settles. Pour into the pint under MAX FILL.
- 3 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 4 SPIN Let the pint sit 5 minutes, flatten any hump, then run SMOOTHIE BOWL.
- 5 RE-SPIN If crumbly, add 1–2 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN until thick and spoonable.
- 6 SERVE Divide between two bowls; top with granola, chia or pumpkin seeds, sliced banana, kiwi and coconut flakes.

PRO TIPS

- Dragon fruit is cheapest from monsoon to early winter. Freeze cubed flesh in zip bags and blend it, half-thawed, whenever you want a bowl.
- Toppings aren't counted in the nutrition: 30 g granola and 1 tbsp seeds add roughly 180 kcal and 5 g protein.
- Leftovers: flatten the top, refreeze, and re-spin with a splash of milk before serving.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- No whey: use 150 g Greek yogurt and skip the milk. Protein falls to about 16 g and the bowl is tangier.
- Tropical: swap the banana for 80 g ripe mango and use coconut or unflavoured whey.
- Gluten-free: top with seeds, nuts and coconut instead of oat granola, or use certified gluten-free granola.

Pink dragon fruit: Blinkit/Zepto/BigBasket (check 'red flesh'). Xanthan: Urban Platter on Amazon. Granola: Yogabar or True Elements.

RE-SPIN
LITE ICE CREAM first; re-spin once with 1
tbsp milk if powdery, then MILKSHAKE

Remember sneaking spoonfuls of dry Bournvita from the jar? This is that taste grown up: a malty chocolate base frozen with whey, spun creamy, then whipped with cold milk into a spoon-thick shake.

INGREDIENTS

- ☐ 320 ml (1½ cups) Amul Taaza toned milk, chilled for the frozen base
- ☐ 40 g (4 tbsp) Cadbury Bournvita or any malted chocolate drink
- ☐ 30 g (1 scoop) Chocolate whey protein MuscleBlaze, Avvatar or ON; ~24 g protein
- ☐ ½ tsp Xanthan gum optional; creamier, less icy
- ☐ 1 pinch Salt brings out the malt
- ☐ 120 ml (½ cup) Amul Taaza toned milk, chilled for the MILKSHAKE stage

METHOD

- 1 BLAST Blend 320 ml milk, Bournvita, whey, xanthan and salt in the Ninja Blast 45 seconds until no powdery lumps remain.
- 2 PREP Rest 2–3 minutes or tap the vessel so the foam settles, then pour into the pint, well under MAX FILL.
- 3 FREEZE Lid on; freeze level for 24 h.
- 4 SPIN Flatten any hump and run LITE ICE CREAM. If powdery, add 1 tbsp milk and RE-SPIN once.
- 5 SPIN Make a 4 cm well to the bottom, pour in the remaining 120 ml milk and run MILKSHAKE.
- 6 SERVE Pour into two tall glasses, dust with dry Bournvita and serve with a wide straw and a spoon.

PRO TIPS

- Bournvita barely dissolves in cold milk with a spoon, but the Blast handles it in seconds. Scrape out any powder sludge at the bottom.
- Want it sweeter? Add 1 tbsp sugar or Milkmaid to the base; it also makes the frozen pint slightly softer.
- Leftovers: pour extra shake back into the pint, flatten, refreeze, and process on LITE ICE CREAM before adding milk again.

SWAPS & TWISTS

- Horlicks: use 40 g Classic Malt Horlicks and vanilla whey for a lighter, more biscuity malt.
- Boost or Complan work the same way; Boost gives a darker, more chocolatey shake.
- Malt-biscuit crunch: after the LITE ICE CREAM spin, run MIX-IN with 2 crushed Parle-G before adding the milk.

Bournvita and Horlicks: any kirana or Blinkit/Zepto. Whey: Amazon, Blinkit or brand sites. Xanthan: Urban Platter on Amazon.
